

Program

Kathleen Parlow, Violinist

COLLEGE OF NOTRE DAME

SAN JOSE, CAL.

MONDAY, JANUARY 19TH, 1914

I

Concerto Tschaikowsky

II

Sonata in E Major Handel

III

(a) Air Goldmark

(b) Menuett Mozart

(c) Variations on a theme of Corelli Tartini-Kreisler

IV

(a) Nocturne Chopin

(b) Hungarian Dance Brahms-Joachim

(c) Polonaise Wieniawski

MASON & HAMLIN PIANO

USED

Prog-336

THE STRADIVARIUS OF PIANOS

For many years the highest musical authorities in both Europe and America have been watching with wonder and constantly increasing admiration the irresistible conquest of the artistic musical world by the

Mason & Hamlin
PIANO

Measured on merit, on real quality of tone, on character of workmanship and materials, analyzed from any view point, scientifically or practically, the Mason & Hamlin Piano shatters the prejudices of years and makes a convert of every intelligent investigator. A new sensation musically is yours when first you try the Mason & Hamlin Piano.

The Wiley B. Allen Co.
MASON & HAMLIN PIANOS

117 So. First Street, San Jose

ALSO

135-153 Kearny and 217-225 Sutter Street, San Francisco

Oakland—510 Twelfth and 1209 Washington

Los Angeles, San Diego, Sacramento, Portland